The screenshot shows the QuillBot website interface. At the top, there is a logo for QuillBot (beta v2.611) and navigation buttons for "Add Extension", "Log In", and "Sign Up". The main content area has a heading "Write a sentence and hit Quill to rephrase it". Below this is a large text input box containing the text: "Submit whatever you want here and Quillbot will change it to something different while maintaining the meaning". To the right of the input box is a green button labeled "Quill it" with a feather icon. Below the button, it says "Prioritize by Changes ✓ Grammar". Below the input box, there is a character limit indicator: "Character Limit: 110 / 400" and a link "Log In / Sign Up for more characters!". Below the input box is a large text output box containing the text: "Send in anything you want, and Quillbot will turn it into something else while keeping its meaning." At the bottom right of the output box, there are links for "ReQuill" and "Copy Text".

Едитори често проверавају оригиналност текста поста пре него што га објаве. Зато је важно да ни у ком случају не пошаљемо текст који смо прекопирали са другог сајта. Текст би требао бити оригинално написан. У крајњем случају, већ постојећи текст можемо променити коришћењем алата за rewriting. Пример таквог алата је дат испод.

The transaction will be completed during the third quarter of the year, the company announced. The move is a surprise, as Nokia had appeared to be seeking a buyer for the division for more than a year after suffering operating losses in five of the past nine financial quarters. It has made operating profits for the past three quarters, and generates almost exactly as much revenue as its handset business. Nokia's latest financial quarter ended and it will report the results on 18 July.

The exchange will be finished amid the second from last quarter of the year, the organization reported. The move is a shock, as Nokia had all the earmarks of being looking for a purchaser for the division for over a year subsequent to enduring working misfortunes in five of the previous nine money related quarters. It has made working benefits for as long as 75%, and produces precisely as much income as its handset business. Nokia's most recent budgetary quarter finished and it will report the outcomes on 18 July.
