- ✓ the Department of International Relations of the Yaşar University (Turkey),
- ✓ the Department of Economics and Finance of the Neapolis University of Pafos (Cyprus) offers a Postgraduate Program in Mediterranean Studies. The Program will receive up to 26 students for the academic year 2023-2024.

Description of the Program

The MA in Mediterranean Studies is designed to be a flexible and dynamic umbrella program that covers a wide variety of issues and problems across different disciplines (i.e., Political Science, International Relations, Cultural Studies, and Economics). It is premised on a multidimensional approach to an array of pressing, though interdependent, questions such as conflict, security and nationalism; democratization, civil society and the Arab Spring; Cultures and multiculturalism; women's issues and activism; economic crisis and development; and energy security and environmental challenges. The structure of the program facilitates the diverse contributions of faculty of the different participating institutions, enabling and sustaining the program's wide-ranging focus.

Deadline for Application: 30 June 2023. Applicants are strongly encouraged to apply early and avoid last-minute increased competition.

There is a 10% (€300) discount on the total tuition fees for those who apply by 31/5/2023 and eventually enroll in the MSc. The discount will be applied to the payment of the 3rd instalment.

Duration of studies: Twelve months, full time. A considerable number of the courses are organized with the use of distance learning methods.

Title Awarded: Master of Arts (M.A.) in Mediterranean Studies.

The degree is awarded from the University of Peloponnese upon successful completion of the program's requirements. All partnering institutions are explicitly mentioned in the Diploma Supplement. The program's requirements correspond to 75 ECTS credits.

Language of instruction: English.
